Mr. Walls will be introduced by Leslie W. Melia, President of the Students' Council of Sir George Williams College, and, after the Prayers of Dedication, he will be thanked by Leonard Rosenberg, B.Com., C.A., President of the Association of Alumni of Sir George Williams College.

The Principal will call upon Mr. Walls to open the new building, and they will be conducted by the Marshal of the Procession, Henry G. Worrell, B.A., Bursar of the College to the entrance of the hall.

There, Mr. Walls will declare the building open and admit the Dean and the Faculty of the College and Schools.

As the Dean and Faculty enter, the members of the Convocation will rise to join the choir in the following hymn.

1. These things shall be, — a loftier race
Than e'er the world hath known shall rise
With flame of freedom in their souls,
And light of knowledge in their eyes.
2. They shall be gentle, brave and strong
To spill no drop of blood, but dare
All that may plant man's lordship firm
On earth, and fire, and sea, and air.
3. They shall be simple in their homes,
And splendid in their public ways,
Filling the mansions of the state
With music and with hymns of praise.
4. Nation with nation, land with land,
Inarmed shall live as comrades free;
In every heart and brain shall throb
The pulse of one fraternity.
5. New arts shall bloom of loftier mould,
And mightier music thrill the skies,
And every life shall be a song
When all the earth is paradise.

Amen.
